

DOG AT A GLANCE

Dog's name: Meidam Gender: Female	Breed: French Bulldog
Colour: Blue &amp; Tan	Age: 4 Years Old
Neutered: No	Medical needs: None
Can live with other dogs? Yes, but we would prefer her to be an only dog or to have a discussion about a very specific kind of companion.	Can live with cats? Untested, so no
Can live with children? No, untested	Preferred age of children? 16+ Years
Any additional training needs:  This girlie is a real conundrum. She arrived from the Pound some weeks ago now in a shocking condition and showed no dog reactivity there or on delivery to her temp foster, where there is a very well-balanced male and female. Initially, she preferred the female and they were pals. Now it is the male. Sometimes, if it comes to sharing a lap it is categorically neither of them, the lap is hers, all hers! This obviously needs working with, as she has been starved of love and affection, and now wants it all, understandably. But she is a biddable little girl who has learned so much in a short space of time and just wants to be loved and cherished.	Type of home needed:  Meidam needs a home where there are no other furries and if there is a dog it needs to be very chilled and not fussed about lap-space. Maybe an older, larger one? No dogs at all would be fabulous, where she can be a companion dog. However, someone willing to work with introductions as her temp fosterers have done would be acceptable too. She trots about very happily on a stroll and generally is no bother at all, as long as the fuss is for her. She would be a fabulous dog for a retired person or someone working from home.
If the fosterer decides to adopt this dog at the end of the foster period, the fee will be:	£450
